MOMENTS WITH THE YOUNGER CHURCH

Dr. Foust

Luke 24:1-12

But on the first day of the week, at early dawn, they came to the tomb, taking the spices that they had prepared. They found the stone rolled away from the tomb, but when they went in, they did not find the body. While they were perplexed about this, suddenly two men in dazzling clothes stood beside them. The women were terrified and bowed their faces to the ground, but the men said to them, “Why do you look for the living among the dead? He is not here, but has risen. Remember how he told you, while he was still in Galilee, that the Son of Man must be handed over to sinners, and be crucified, and on the third day rise again.” Then they remembered his words, and returning from the tomb, they told all this to the eleven and to all the rest. Now it was Mary Magdalene, Joanna, Mary the mother of James, and the other women with them who told this to the apostles. But these words seemed to them an idle tale, and they did not believe them. But Peter got up and ran to the tomb; stooping and looking in, he saw the linen cloths by themselves; then he went home, amazed at what had happened.

ONE VOICE: This is the written word of God for the people of God.

ALL VOICES: Thanks be to God!

THE CHURCH AT PRAYER

Rev. Allison Benfield

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

A LITANY BASED ON COLOSSIANS 3:1-17

Mike Miller

ONE VOICE: If you are serious about living this new resurrection life with Christ, act like it. Pursue the things which Christ desires to instill within you. Don't shuffle along, eyes to the ground, absorbed with the things right in front of you. Look up and be alert to what is going on in the world because of Christ. That's what really matters. See things from his perspective.

ALL VOICES: Our old life is dead. We have been raised with Christ who is our real life with God. Christ is the one who gives us life with purpose and hope. He is our life. To pursue the life of Christ within us, we must remove from our lives everything connected with the way of death: sexual promiscuity, impurity, lust, doing whatever we feel like whenever we feel like it, and grabbing whatever attracts our fancy. That life is shaped by things and feelings instead of by God. It wasn't long ago that we were doing all that stuff and not knowing any better. But we know better now, so let us make sure it's all gone for good: bad temper, irritability, meanness, profanity, dirty talk. And, we must not lie to one another.

ONE VOICE: You're done with that old life. It's like a filthy set of ill-fitting clothes you've stripped off and put in the fire. Now you're dressed in a new wardrobe, with every item custom-made for you by the Creator, with God's label on it. And words like Jewish and non-Jewish, religious and irreligious, insider and outsider, civilized and uncouth, slave and free, mean nothing. From now on EVERYONE is defined by Christ; EACH OF YOU is included in Christ.

ALL VOICES: So, we are the beloved of God, set apart for this new life of compassion. We will dress in the wardrobe God has chosen for us: kindness, humility, quiet strength and discipline. We will be even-tempered, content with second place and quick to forgive an offense. And regardless of what else we put on, we will wear love. It is our basic, all-purpose garment. We will wear love every day.

ONE VOICE: Let the peace of Christ keep you in tune with God and in step with each other. None of this going off and doing your own thing. And cultivate thankfulness. Let the Word of Christ—the Living Message of God—have full control of your life. Let every detail in your lives—words, actions, whatever—be done in the name of the Lord Jesus Christ, thanking God the Father every step of the way.

† The Christ light enters the sanctuary today symbolizing the proclamation of Christ's resurrection. God's light, as revealed in Christ, cannot be extinguished. Christ continues to penetrate darkness. The Christ candle is carried by Nora Frances Benton, who, through her commitment and baptism, proclaims the light which continues from generation to generation.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

Holiday

The church offices will be closed on Monday, April 2, for the Easter holiday.

Gay Men’s Chorus of Charlotte

Next Sunday, April 8, we will welcome the Gay Men’s Chorus of Charlotte to assist in leading worship. The GMCC will be singing several songs during the service, concluding with a group number by GMCC and the St. John’s Chancel choir.

New Choir Robes

As many of you witnessed last Sunday, the choir has been outfitted with new robes that add a burst of beautiful blue into the chancel area. These robes were purchased through a generous gift by one of our choir families. The robes that the choir formerly wore will continue to be used by the youth choir for events such as Hanging of the Green. This is a marvelous gift that will add to our worship for years to come!

The St. John’s Pulpit

This Spring, the St. John’s Pulpit will respond to the resurrection of Jesus and this new life we share in Christ. We will explore Adapting to God’s Light: New Ways of Seeing. The risen Christ offered new ways of seeing to Mary Magdalene, Cleopas, Didymus, Simon Peter and others in the early Jesus Movement. Like them, we are adapting to God’s light revealed through an empty tomb.
