Eastertide at St. John's

Begins Sunday, April 21

Join us for worship on Easter, April 21, at 10:30am in the Sanctuary. The message is titled, "Living in God's Light with Your Lack of Understanding," based on John 20:1-10. On this day we will begin a new, 7-week worship theme called: Live Tomorrow's Life Today. This theme comes from the hymn, "There's a Spirit in the Air," on which we have based our entire year of worship. As we move through Easter and the six Sundays following, we will consider how God transforms, enlightens, and calls us to live in the power of resurrection.

Citywide Easter Sunrise Service

Sunday, April 21

All are welcome to the 2019 Citywide Easter Sunrise service at Romare Bearden Park at 300 S. Church Street. The service will be at 7:00am on April 21. Gail Henderson-Belsito, Director of Congregational Care and Worship at Caldwell Presbyterian Church, will preach. Free parking for the Sunrise Service will be available in First Presbyterian's parking lot at the corner of Trade and Poplar streets. Seating is provided at the park, and people are invited to bring blankets or other chairs. In the event of rain, the service will be held in Wood Fellowship Hall at First Presbyterian Church.

Join us in Broach Hall on May 5 after worship for Church Conference. We will announce and discuss important items and want everyone to be there. Lunch will be provided at a low cost. Sign up with Mallory today!

TIGER WOODS, CATHEDRAL OF NOTRE DAME AND HOLY WEEK; EXPERIENCING SACRED SPACE

I once read of a boy living with autism who watches the movie, Titanic, over and over in reverse because he likes to see the ship come up out of the water.

Last Sunday, we watched Tiger Woods win The Masters. If you have ever walked the course in Augusta, you have experienced sacred space in the world of golf. In 2000, Paula and I were able to walk the grounds of Augusta on a Thursday. We followed Arnold Palmer, Jack Nicklaus and Gary Player for three holes before peeling off to explore the grounds for the remainder of the day.

Tiger Woods' fall into the depths of loneliness, grief, immorality, physical pain and professional despair have been amplified by the media. Last Sunday's leap of glee by a victorious Tiger, chants of support by patrons, smiles on the faces of viewers and hugs by his children and mother were expressions of hope for a redemption of sorts. It was a bit like watching a ship come up out of the water. Is there a better place for a fallen influencer to roar again than Augusta?

On Monday, we watched video as the Notre Dame Cathedral burned in Paris.

This treasure of the Roman Catholic Church is over 800 years old; begun in 1163 and completed in 1345. Although it is sacred space for millions, it has also been the context for plenty of tragic moments and incarnations of evil. In recent years, efforts to raise funds for restoring the cathedral have been difficult. Yet, in less than 48 hours since the destructive fire, almost $1 billion has been committed and President Macron pledges to restore the cathedral within five years; redemption?

In 2009, my travel companions and I descended from the Mount of Olives making our way through the Eastern Gate of Jerusalem. This was the path taken by Jesus on that Sunday before Passover; it was a path of celebration. The next day, we walked the Via Dolorosa, the way of grief. Both are sacred spaces.

This evening, we will gather in the St. John's sanctuary; sacred space. Through bread and cup, we will obey Jesus who asks us to 'remember.' We will read the words spoken at the cross and from the cross. We will extinguish candles as we retell this part of God's Story of redemptive compassion. Then on Sunday, we will gather again to celebrate God's compassion and our redemption.

Did I ever tell you about the boy who likes to see the Titanic come up out of the water? Do you know why?

Shalom, Dennis

Room in the Inn Thank You

From Alice Wirz and Dale Johnson

Thanks to all of our stalwart Room in the Inn volunteers for successfully completing another Room in the Inn season! For this, the 23rd season of RITI, St. John's volunteers converted the gym and the lounge into a warm, safe space for up to 12 homeless neighbors each Friday night from December through March. Special thanks to our friends from Caldwell Memorial Presbyterian Church who partnered with us for five of those 17 Friday nights.

Whether you participated as a driver, meal provider, overnight host, van driver, laundry washer, lunch bag provider, or setup assistant, we VERY much appreciate all you have done to make 12 neighbors feel at home on each of those wintry Friday nights!

Several individual volunteers and Sunday School classes have provided assistance since RITI was initiated by the Urban Ministry Center in 1996! We appreciate ALL volunteers, whether you've been involved for 1 year or for 23! Thanks in advance for your help beginning next December when the 24th edition of RITI will debut!

Did You Know?

Through allocations from our church budget, St. John's supports organizations in Charlotte whose work aligns with our MT25 missions of addressing hunger, education, children and families, homelessness, peace building and health?

One of those organizations is "The Relatives." They provide immediate help and support for youth in crisis, aligning with our missions of homelessness, and children and families. The Relatives was founded in 1974 and operated in the basement of a church. Legend has it that after a short time operating without a name, its founders asked the youth who were staying there what would be a good name. They suggested The Relatives, because they said they were telling their friends they were staying "with relatives." The Relatives focus on programs that assist homeless youth and youth in crisis. For more information on their mission and programs visit www.therelatives.org.

Counseling Center At CHARLOTTE

Another of the organizations with whom we partner as a healthcare MT25 mission is the Counseling Center at Charlotte. They exist to help persons who find themselves having difficulty in dealing with life situations. Any of us may find ourselves feeling lost or confused, overwhelmed by the circumstances we are in. Their experienced therapists can help, provide safe space to heal and grow in working with individuals, couples, and families. They foster understanding, healing, and renewal in a faith-based context. For more information visit www.counselingcenteratcharlotte.com

Deacon Nominations Needed

A Message from the Leadership Task Force

The Leadership Task Force is seeking deacon nominations for the 2019-2020 church year. Our diaconate is the primary lay leadership body of St. John's Baptist Church. Members of the congregation are elected to determine, initiate, and support the various ministries of the church with each of three panels overseeing a different part of our greater whole.

The administrative panel is responsible for the business and management, including finance, personnel, house & grounds and technology. The ministry panel is responsible for programming and education, including outreach, missions, spiritual formation and worship. The pastoral panel is responsible for congregational care and relationship building. For this cycle, the church will elect 4 administrative deacons, 4 ministry deacons and 9 pastoral deacons. If you would like to nominate a candidate, please alert Mallory in the church office. Please secure your candidate's permission prior to nominating them, and if possible indicate which panel your candidate prefers.
