READING OF THE GOSPEL

John 21:15-19

Jordan Benton

When they had finished breakfast, Jesus said to Simon Peter, "Simon son of John, do you love me more than these?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my lambs." A second time he said to him, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" He said to him, "Yes, Lord; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Tend my sheep." He said to him the third time, "Simon son of John, do you love me?" Peter felt hurt because he said to him the third time, "Do you love me?" And he said to him, "Lord, you know everything; you know that I love you." Jesus said to him, "Feed my sheep. Very truly, I tell you, when you were younger, you used to fasten your own belt and to go wherever you wished. But when you grow old, you will stretch out your hands, and someone else will fasten a belt around you and take you where you do not wish to go." (He said this to indicate the kind of death by which he would glorify God.) After this he said to him, "Follow me."

ONE: This is the written word of God for the people of God.

ALL: Thanks be to God!

THE CHURCH AT PRAYER

Rev. Gray

Our Father, who art in heaven, hallowed be Thy name. Thy kingdom come, Thy will be done, on earth as it is in heaven. Give us this day our daily bread. And forgive us our debts, as we forgive our debtors. And lead us not into temptation, but deliver us from evil: For Thine is the kingdom and the power and the glory forever. Amen.

REFLECTION

Abandoning their Lord in his time of need, hiding in shame, full of confusion, these were the disciples? Yes, these were the disciples, in the hours and days after the death of their Lord, the one who would be Christ. Even after the resurrection some of them wrestled with what to do next. How does one believe such a thing as a resurrection; a new ending to their story, but not the one they expected? Yet, out of the ashes Jesus appears to them not with a crown but with an invitation to love the world as he had loved. An invitation for a new beginning; an opportunity to turn mourning into dancing, first within themselves, and then for all people, in all times and in all places.

OFFERTORY

Beautiful Things

All this pain, I wonder if I'll ever find my way? I wonder if my life could really change at all. All this earth, could all that is lost ever be found, could a garden come up from this ground at all? You make beautiful things, you make beautiful things out of the dust. You make beautiful things, you make beautiful things out of us. All around, hope is springing up from this old ground. Out of chaos life is being found in You.

Members of the congregation are elected to determine, initiate, and support the various ministries of the church with each of three panels overseeing a different part of our greater whole. The administrative panel is responsible for the business and management, including finance, personnel, house & grounds and technology. The ministry panel is responsible for programming and education, including outreach, missions, spiritual formation and worship. The pastoral panel is responsible for congregational care and relationship building. For this cycle, the church will elect 4 administrative deacons, 4 ministry deacons and 9 pastoral deacons.
